RESOLUTION NO.
of the Annual General Meeting of Selena FM S.A.
of Wrocław, adopted on 29 May 2015
concerning the covering of the loss for the financial year of 2014

§ 1

The Annual General Meeting of Selena FM S.A. hereby resolves that the loss for 2014 in an amount of PLN 21,447,749.06 (say: twenty one million four hundred and forty seven thousand seven hundred and forty nine 06/100 zlotys) will be covered in full from the supplementary capital.

The Resolution becomes effective on the day of its adoption.

Rationale:

The Management Board of Selena FM S.A. recommends that the loss be covered from the supplementary capital, which as at 31.12.2014 amounted to PLN 237,738,751,13. and the possible AGM resolution it will amount to PLN 216,291,002.07.

Draft to item 19 of the Agenda.

RESOLUTION NO.
of the Annual General Meeting of Selena FM S.A.
of Wrocław, adopted on 29 May 2015
concerning dividend payment for the financial year 2014

§ 1

The AGM has resolved to pay dividend of PLN 0.28 per share. The total amount to be allocated to dividend is PLN 6,393,520.

§ 2

The dividend shall be paid from the Company's supplementary capital created in accordance with Article 348 of the Commercial Companies Code solely from the Company's retained earnings which may be used to pay dividend.

§ 3

The Annual General Meeting has set:

1. the record date (date of acquiring rights to dividend) as 15 July 2015;
2. the dividend payment date to 30 July 2013.

The Resolution becomes effective on the day of its adoption.

Rationale

The dividend payment method proposed by the Company's Management Board is consistent with the dividend payment policy adopted by Selena Group.

1. The dividend payment intention / policy was already reflected in Selena FM's Share Prospectus of 2008 and has been a part of the regular communication with investors. At the same time, the Company indicated that the dividend might be paid following the period of the Group's expansion, i.e. after delivery of the strategy of intensive development and investments. The Company undertook to recommend to the AGM a dividend payout of approx. 25-50% of the profit arising from the Group's consolidated financial statements.

2. Consequently, in 2014, the AGM closing the year 2013, approved the dividend payment also amounting to PLN 6,393,520, which was PLN 0.28 per share. The amount represented more than 30% of the Group's consolidated net profit for 2013.
3. The management of cash position and cash flows, and hence the capacity to pay dividend, is determined based on the Group's consolidated performance.
4. At the end of 2014, the Group's debt ratio fell by 3 pp to 44%, while its liquidity ratio was 2.12 (quick ratio at 1.44).
5. Starting from 2012, the Group has operated a very limited investment policy, allocated each year from PLN 15m to PLN 25m for delivery of its necessary projects (which in practice meant investments amounting to approx. 60-70% of the Group's annual depreciation), excluding acquisitions. In 2015, the capital expenditure programme is expected to be at a similar level.
6. By recommending a dividend payment, the Management Board of Selena FM S.A. took into account the current cash position of the Group, expectations and preferences of the shareholders regarding dividend payment and the ability to achieve a return on capital after the Group's expansion.
7. Accordingly, the Company's Management Board decided that the appropriate and recommend dividend for payout was PLN 0.28 per share (PLN 6,393,520 in total).

V. GOVERNING BODIES

§ 8

The Company's governing bodies include:

- a) Management Board
- b) Supervisory Board
- c) General Meeting.

Management Board

§ 9

1. The Management Board shall consist of 1 (one) to 5 (five) persons, including the Management Board President, and - in the case the Management Board consists of at least 2 persons – one or two Vice-Presidents, appointed and removed by the Supervisory Board.
2. The Management Board is appointed for a joint 3 (three) year term of office.

1. The Management Board shall be responsible for managing the Company's affairs and representing it outside.
2. Where the Management Board consists of more than 1 person, the authority to represent and bind the Company shall be vested in two Management Board members acting together or one Management Board member acting jointly with a proxy.

1. The Management Board President shall manage the work of the Management Board, in particular shall coordinate, supervise and organise the work of the Management Board members as well as call and preside over Management Board meetings. In the event of equality of votes, the Management Board President shall have the casting vote.
2. The operations of the Management Board shall be governed by the Terms of Reference of the Management Board which are adopted by the Management Board and approved by the Supervisory Board. Each Management Board member may manage the Company's affairs independently in relation to the ordinary course of the Company's business. Any matters that go beyond the ordinary course of the Company's businesses require a resolution of the Management Board. A Management Board resolution must also be passed on any matter required by at least one Management Board member.

Supervisory Board

1. The Supervisory Board shall consist of 5 (five) or 7 (seven) members appointed for a joint term of office of 3 (three) years. The number of the Supervisory Board members is defined by the General Meeting.
2. The Supervisory Board members shall be appointed and removed by the General Meeting, except the first Supervisory Board of the first term of office, which was appointed by the Founders. When selecting the Supervisory Board members, the General Meeting designates the Supervisory Board Chairman. The General Meeting may change the number of Supervisory Board members during the Supervisory Board term of office, however only in connection with changes made to the Supervisory Board composition during such term of office.

3. The first meeting of the new Supervisory Board shall be convened by the Supervisory Board Chairman. Such meeting may be held not earlier than 2 weeks after appointment of such new Supervisory Board.

4. At the first meeting, the Supervisory Board elects Vice Chairman and Secretary from among its members.

5. Each Supervisory Board member may be elected for the next terms of office.

6. Each Supervisory Board member is free to resign from his office at any time. The resignation shall be tendered in writing to the Management Board. In the event a Supervisory Board member resigns or the mandate of a Supervisory Board member expires for a different reason, the Management Board immediately convenes a General Meeting to supplement the composition of the Supervisory Board. Until the Supervisory Board is supplemented, it operates in a reduced composition. However, if the number of the Supervisory Board members falls below 5 (five), the Supervisory Board loses its capacity to adopt resolutions.

1. Subject to the provisions of section 2, from the moment of floating of the Company's shares on the Stock Exchange, one Supervisory Board member shall become an Independent Member. Independent Members shall fulfil the independence criteria specified in Appendix II of the EU Recommendation of 15 February 2005 on the role of non-executive directors or members of supervisory boards of listed companies as well as the recommendations set out in point 3.6 of the document "Best Practice for the Companies Listed on Warsaw Stock Exchange" attached to Resolution no. 12/1170/2007 of the Warsaw Stock Exchange Council of 4 July 2007.

2. The Independent Member shall be appointed to the Supervisory Board not later than at the first General Meeting held after floatation of the Company's shares. The candidate for the Independent Member shall file with the Chairman of the General Meeting a written statement on fulfilment of the independence criteria set out in section 1. The statement shall be attached to the General Meeting minutes.

1. The Supervisory Board shall operate pursuant to the terms of reference that it adopted and that were approved by the General Meeting, which lay down details of the Supervisory Board operations.

2. The Supervisory Board meeting shall be held as required, but at least once in every three months. The Supervisory Board meeting shall be convened by the Supervisory Board Chairman by way of a written notice, containing the proposed agenda and draft resolutions. The notice shall be circulated to all the Supervisory Board members by registered mail at least 7 days before the meeting.

The notices may also be circulated by electronic mail (if it was previously approved by the Supervisory Board member in writing) to the addresses indicated to the Supervisory Board Chairman by the other Supervisory Board members. The Management Board or a member of the Supervisory Board may demand that a Supervisory Board is convened, specifying the proposed agenda. The Supervisory Board Chairman, and in the event of his absence or difficulties with contacting him, the Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall convene a meeting within 2 weeks of receipt of the relevant request, with such meeting to be held not later than 21 days after the two-week period.

3. The Supervisory Board resolutions shall be adopted by an absolute majority of votes by a quorum consisting of at least 50% of the Supervisory Board members. If the votes are equal, the Supervisory Board Chairman shall have the casting vote.

4. The Supervisory Board meeting may be held without being formally convened if all the Supervisory Board members approve it not later than on the day of the meeting, confirming their consent in writing or signing the attendance list. A resolution which is not included in the agenda cannot be adopted, unless the meeting is attended by all the Supervisory Board members and none of the attendees lodges any protest on this matter.

5. The Supervisory Board members may take part in adopting Supervisory Board resolutions by casting their votes in writing through another member of the Supervisory Board, subject to art. 388 § 2 and 4 of the Commercial Companies Code.

6. Except as provided in art. 388 § 4 of the Commercial Companies Code, the Supervisory Board may adopt resolutions by circulation without holding a meeting. The date of such resolution is the date when the Supervisory Board Chairman receives the resolution signed by all the Supervisory Board members who participate in the voting, with a note on who voted for or against the resolution and who abstained from vote. The Supervisory Board Chairman shall circulate the draft resolution to all the Supervisory Board members via registered mail or electronic mail (if the Supervisory Board member previously consented to it in writing) with information that the signed resolution must be returned within fourteen days after the draft resolution has been sent.

7. Except as provided in art. 388 § 4 of the Commercial Companies Code, the Supervisory Board may also adopt resolution without holding a meeting and using remote means of communication instead (e.g. phone, conference call, electronic mail) on the condition that all the Supervisory Board members have been advised on the draft resolution as per section 6 and have agreed to participate in the adoption of the resolutions using remote means of communication. Under this procedure, the Supervisory Board Chairman communicates with the Supervisory Board members one by one or simultaneously (conference call) and presents the draft resolution to them, obtains their consents to participation in adoption of the resolution by means of the means of remote communication and then awaits votes on the resolution for a period of time he chooses, but which may not be shorter than 15 minutes from the moment of presentation of the draft resolution to the particular Supervisory Board member; failure to cast a vote is tantamount to abstention. The course of proceedings held as outlined above shall be recorded in the minutes by the Supervisory Board Chairman. The minutes shall be signed at the next meeting by all the Supervisory Board members who took part in the vote.

1. The Supervisory Board shall exercise oversight of the Company's operations.

2. In addition to any other matters indicated in the Commercial Companies Code and in these Statutes, the Supervisory Board shall be authorised to:

a) assess the Company's financial statements, the Management Board's report on the Company's operations and the Management Board's proposals regarding distribution of profit or the method of covering the loss, and to present to the General Meeting the annual reports on the result of such assessment and prepare and present to the AGM a condensed evaluation of the Company's position, with a focus on evaluation of the internal audit and risk management;

c) determine the rules of remunerating the Management Board members and the level of their remuneration;

d) approve non-salary benefits granted by the Company to the Management Board members;

e) enter into agreements between the Company and the Management Board members; in an employment agreement with a Management Board member or in another agreement whereby a Management Board member provides service to the Company, the Company is represented by the Supervisory Board Chairman or another member of the Supervisory Board duly authorised by the Supervisory Board. The same procedure applies to the statements of will of the Company arising from performance or relating to termination of such agreements;

f) select the auditor for the Company's financial statements;

g) approve the Company's long-term strategies and its annual financial plans;

h) approve the acquisition or disposal by the Company of properties, perpetual usufruct rights or a share in a real estate where the value of the transaction exceeds 3% of the Company's equity as per the last audited financial statements;

i) from the floatation of the Company's shares and as long as the Company remains a listed entity, subject to the provision of section 2 letter e - approving the conclusion by the Company of agreements with the Company's related parties as defined by the applicable regulations on the current and financial reports published by the issuers of securities. The approval is not required for usual transactions entered into on market terms in the ordinary course of the Company's business with a controlled entity;

j) Approve disposal of preference registered shares, subject to the exclusions specified in § 6 section 5, the second sentence;

k) Subject to the provisions of letters l) to o), approve material agreements that are not provided for in the Company's financial plan; a material agreement is one to which the Company is a party and the value of such agreement is at least 3% of the Company's equity as per the last audited financial statements. A material agreement is also two or more agreements concluded by the Company with one entity or a subsidiary of such entity in a period of less than 12 months if the total value of such agreements meets the criteria set out in the preceding sentence;

l) Approve the issuing or accepting a bill of exchange or granting a corporate guarantee by the Company whose value exceeds 3% of the Company's equity as per the last audited financial statements, except the cases specified in the Company's financial plan approved by the Supervisory Board.

l) Approve any loan, leasing or a similar agreement whose purpose is to fund the Company's business if its value exceeds 3% of the Company's equity as per the last audited financial statements;

m) Approve any pledge, mortgage or other encumbrance of the Company's assets whose single value exceeds 3% of the Company's equity as per the last audited financial statements, except the cases specified in the Company's financial plan approved by the Supervisory Board;

n) Approve the formation by the Company of another company or acquisition of shareholding in other companies and approve the terms of such transactions, except the equity transactions provided for in the Company's financial plan approved by the Supervisory Board;

o) Approve an increase or reduction of the share capital in subsidiaries and the Company's participation in such an increase or reduction of the share capital in the entities in which the Company holds a minority interest, except the equity transactions provided for in the Company's financial plan approved by the Supervisory Board;

p) Approve disposal by the Company of any previously acquired shareholdings in other companies and approve the terms and method of such transactions, except the equity transactions provided for in the Company's financial plan approved by the Supervisory Board;

r) Prepare and present to the Annual General Meeting an assessment of its own work;

s) Review and express opinion on any matters presented to the General Meeting.

3. No Supervisory Board member shall be permitted to vote on any matters that pertain to him personally or financially.

1. The remuneration of the Supervisory Board members, including any Supervisory Board member to whom the Supervisory Board delegated the performance of particular supervisory duties, shall be determined by the General Meeting.

2. A Supervisory Board member who temporarily acts as a member of the Management Board shall receive remuneration as envisaged for the Management Board member whose role he fulfils.

General Meeting

1. The General Meeting shall be convened in the Company's head office or in Warsaw.

2. The General Meeting shall be convened using the procedure required by law. The General Meeting may be cancelled in the event of extraordinary circumstances (force majeure) or when such meeting is clearly purposeless. Such cancellation shall be effected in the same way as the General Meeting is called, not later than three weeks before its original date. Any General Meeting whose agenda contains particular items requested by the authorised persons or which has been convened at the request of such persons may only be cancelled upon approval of the requesting parties.

3. The date of the General Meeting may be changed only in the same manner as its cancellation, even if the proposed agenda of the meeting has not changed.

1. The General Meeting shall define its terms of reference with details on standing orders.

2. The General Meeting shall be opened by the Supervisory Board Chairman or another person that he has designated. If the Supervisory Board Chairman is not able to attend the General Meeting and fails to designate a person to open the General Meeting, the General Meeting shall be opened by the Management Board President or a person designated by him, and failing them - by the Shareholder or a person representing the Shareholder holding the highest percentage of shares in the Company's share capital represented at the General Meeting.

1. Without prejudice to other matters stipulated by law or the Company's Statutes to the remit of the General Meeting, the General Meeting shall adopt resolutions on the following matters in particular:

- a) Review and approval of the Company's financial statements and the Management Board's report on the Company's activities in the previous financial year;
- b) Distribution of profit or loss cover;
- c) Giving acknowledgement to the Company's directors for performance of their duties;
- d) Creation and elimination of reserves and special funds and their appropriation;

e) Making decisions of remedying a loss caused in formation of the Company or in exercise of management or oversight;

f) Appointment and removal of the Company's Supervisory Board members;

g) Appointment and removal of liquidators;

h) Determining the remuneration of the Company's Supervisory Board members;

i) Approval of the Terms of Reference of the Supervisory Board;

j) Adoption of the standing orders of the General Meeting;

k) Floating the Company's shares on the stock exchange.

2. In addition to the matters specified in section 1, a resolution of the General Meeting shall be required for other matters provided by law or these Statutes.

3. The acquisition or disposal by the Company of properties, perpetual usufruct rights or a share in a real estate shall not require any resolution of the Supervisory Board.

VI. FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTING

§ 20

The Management Board shall be required to develop and provide to the Supervisory Board a financial plan for the next financial year at such date and in such scope as required by the Supervisory Board. The financial plan shall at least include the inflows and outflows plan for the next financial year and indicate the expected sources of funding the business.

§ 21

1. The Company shall create a supplementary capital to cover any balance sheet losses. The Company shall allocate to the supplementary capital at least 8% (eight per cent) of the clean annual profit until the supplementary capital reaches at least 1/3 (a third) of the share capital.

2. The General Meeting may decide to create other reserves to cover any special losses or expenses.

3. The use of the reserves shall be determined by the General Meeting.

4. The General Meeting may exclude the Company's profit from distribution and allocate it to the supplementary capital, reserves or other specific funds or permitted purpose.

1. The Company's financial year corresponds to the calendar year. The first financial year shall end of 31 December 2007.

2. A certified copy of the Management Board's report on the Company's activities, the financial statements and the auditor's opinion, as well as certified copies of the documents indicated in § 15 section 2 point a) and point p) of the Company's Statutes are issued to the shareholders on request, not later than 15 days prior to the General Meeting.
